

Something Old...

September 24 to 27, 2009

12:30pm and 7:00pm

EPCOR Centre for the Arts, Calgary, AB

An affectionate, sometimes bashful pig named Wilbur befriends a spider named Charlotte, who lives above his pen. Wilbur is devastated when he learns of the destiny that befalls all those of porcine persuasion.

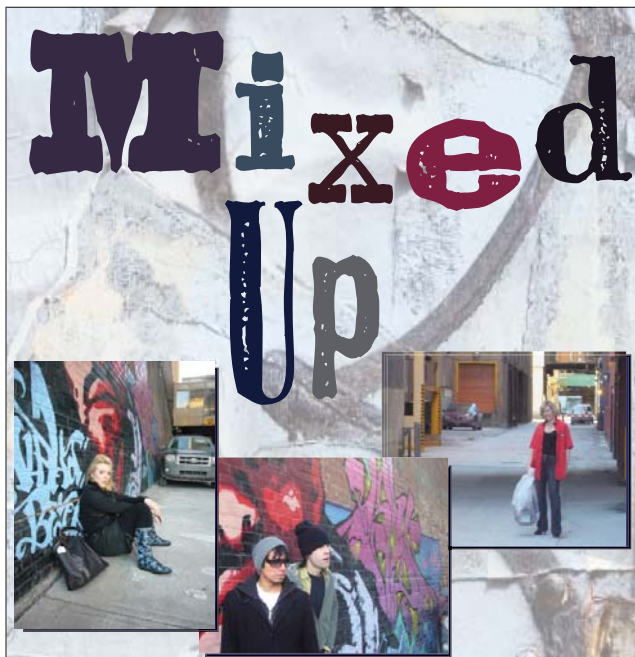

Charlotte spins a web that reads "Some Pig," convincing the farmer and surrounding community that Wilbur should be saved. In this faithful stage adaptation of the famous story of friendship, hardship, and the cycle of life, E.B. White reminds us to open our eyes to the wonder found in the simplest of things.

Something New...

Directed by Adrienne Smook
Written by Ellen Chorley, Bonnie Gratz,
Telly James, and John Knight

Mixed Up is the story of the intersection of four lives and the devastating consequences that follow - delving into the psyche of violent teens and what brings them to their breaking point.

Inspired by Calgary teens, victims of violence, and those who bring about change - this play is an engaging look at the disconnection between those who long for attention and most of all, love.

Tennessee Williams'

February 18 to 21, 2010

12:30pm and 7:00pm

EPCOR Centre for the Arts, Calgary, AB

Tom Wingfield is a young man stuck with a demanding mother and a younger sister satisfied to avoid life and play with her glass figurines. Can a precarious deal he strikes with his mother truly set him free?

This memory play is a wonder of poetry on stage. Our innovative production of Tennessee Williams' theatre classic is a beautiful prayer for hope and peace.
